MOTION

16-11296

I am sending you this Motion in reference to a Utility Patent request that was filed on or about July 16, 1996. I, Daisy Washington-Gross applied for "The Detachable Beeper Disc Digital Computer Wrist Watch". At that time, I paid $325.00 to the Patent Office. Following that, my Invention Patent request came up missing for a whole month. I, Daisy Washington-Gross do believe in "Good Faith" that my Utility and Design Patent was infringed upon. I would like the courts to grant me the rights to sue Apple, Inc. and any and all who infringed upon my invention.

I am asking for (2) Two Billion Dollars your honor. I am asking that a court date be appointed so that I can state my claim. I will also provide any and all drawings and paperwork to investigate per request. I have notified Apple, Inc. and Mr. Tim Cook (Apple, Inc. CEO) by certified letter that a lawsuit is being filed for infringement of my "Computer Wrist Watch". A true copy has been placed in the United States Postal mail.

Sincerely,

Daisy Washington Gross
